Reading

A. Customs & Border Protection

Read the dialogue out loud with a partner.
Underline any words or phrases you don't understand.

Customs Officer

Martin

Welcome to the United States.
Where are you from?

We're from Canada.

May I see your passports, please?

Here you are.

What is the purpose of your visit to the United States?

It's a pleasure trip.

And where will you be staying while you're here?

We'll be at the Park Inn in Manhattan.

Do you have anything to declare today?

No, we don't.

May I see the customs declaration form
the flight attendant gave you on the plane?

Here it is.

Are you bringing any alcohol or tobacco products into the country?

No, we aren't.

How long will you be staying in the States?

One week.

Okay, folks. Here you go. I've stamped your passports. Have a nice holiday.

Thank you.

B. Baggage Claim

Read the dialogue out loud with a partner.
Underline any words or phrases you don't understand.

Airline Representative

Martin

Ellen

I've got our garment bag, but I don't think our suitcase arrived. The carousel has stopped and no more bags are coming out.

Let's go to the lost luggage counter and report it missing.

Can I help you?

Yes. We just arrived on flight 241 and one of our bags didn't come. It looks like all the luggage from our flight has already been unloaded.

May I see your baggage claim, please?

Here it is.

Thank you. Can you describe the bag, please?

It's a medium-sized, light green suitcase.

Did your other bag arrive?

Yes, it did. It's right here. The suitcase is the same color as this garment bag.

Okay, let me check the computer. I'll put a trace on it. Hmm... Okay. I see it arrived in Chicago, but it wasn't put on your connecting flight. We have another flight in at 2:30. We can have it delivered as soon as it arrives. Can you please complete this lost luggage form with your name, address of where you'll be staying here in New York, and a phone number where we can get in touch with you?

Okay.

Here's a copy of your lost luggage report. If there's any problem, you can contact us at the number at the top of this form. I think your bag should probably be at your hotel by dinnertime.

Let's keep our fingers crossed.

Have a good afternoon.

Thank you.

Word Bank

These optional sheets are included at the end of the lesson. Here are some ideas for use: Give to students for extra review, cut up the entries and definitions to use for a match-up task, give to students and have them write their own example sentences in their notebooks, have students keep them in a vocabulary journal, etc.

SPELLING NOTE:

This lesson shows the American spelling of the words Center, Color, and Practice. Most other English-speaking countries spell these words this way: Centre, Colour, and Practise (when used as a verb, Practice when used as a noun). Make it a challenge for your students to find these words in the lesson and see if they know the alternate spellings.

Dialogue Building

The dialogue below is not in the right order. Cut up the strips, and then work alone or with a partner to rearrange them into the correct order. Then practice the dialogue.
